The screenshot shows the BAIT Resources web page. At the top, it says "BAIT Resources" and "Branch Activities Information & Thoughts: The 'BAIT' you need to 'hook' your members on AALAS!". Below this is a paragraph: "BAIT is a tried and true sharing of activities and ideas among branches. Find methods for getting members involved at both the local and national level of AALAS, and things that help answer the old question, 'What's in it for me?'". The page is organized into several sections with green headers:

- Personal & Professional Development
 - Write a scientific article
 - Get a job
 - Create a poster presentation
 - Become somebody in AALAS
- Animal Care & Facility
 - Clicker training
 - Disaster preparedness and recovery
 - Establish a quality assurance program
- Reach Out! Public Outreach Training
